Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Status

- 1) ☐ Responsive to communication(s) filed on ____.
- 2a) ☒ This action is FINAL. 2b) ☐ This action is non-final.
- 3) ☐ Since this application is in condition for allowance except for formal matters, prosecution as to the merits is closed in accordance with the practice under Ex parte Quayle, 1935 C.D. 11, 453 O.G. 213.

Disposition of Claims

- 4) ☒ Claim(s) 1,3-9,11-13,15 and 16 is/are pending in the application.
- 4a) Of the above claim(s) ____ is/are withdrawn from consideration.
- 5) ☒ Claim(s) 1 and 3-8 is/are allowed.
- 6) ☒ Claim(s) 9,11-13,15 and 16 is/are rejected.

DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 9, 11-13, 15 and 16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Yamaguchi et al (U.S. Patent No. 4,055,313) in view of Gay et al (U.S. Patent No. 2,092,966) and Hutzenlaub (U.S. Patent No. 4,117,986).

With respect to Claims 9, 11-13, 15 and 16, Yamaguchi et al, Figures 1 and 2, teaches providing a full-width paper web 11 issuing from a paper machine having a production width, providing a plurality of first reel spools (see Fig 2) and reeling said full-width paper web around a spool in a first reel-up 1, (Note that wound reels 12 are placed on carts and taken away for further processing); returning the empty first reel spool to said first reel up. Hutzenlaub, Figures 1-3 and Column 5, lines 5-6, teaches rolls being wound and being placed on carriage in which the carriage may be moved for a further handling of the coil. Gay et al, Figures 1-6, teach unwinding a paper web 2; passing the web through a finishing machine 3 and reeled up in a second reel-up 7 wherein the first reel arranged between the paper machine and the unwinding station has a different dimension than the second reel spool. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to send the first reeled up web to an unwinding station, as taught by Gay et al, for the purpose of further treating the web. Further it should be noted that Hutzenlaub teaches to move rolls to different areas for further handling. As such, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art that the rolls such as those of Yamaguchi et al or Hutzenlaub could be moved to be finished by the method shown by Gay et al. With respect to winding a single reel spool at a time, it should be noted that Yamaguchi et al does teach reeling a web around one single reel spool. With respect to winding one at a time, it would have been an obvious to wind a single roll or a number of rolls because one of ordinary skill would have been expected to determine the optimum number of webs to be wound for a particular use.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1 and 3-8 are allowed.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed July 30, 2004 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

With respect to applicant's remarks on page 7, the examiner recognizes that references cannot be arbitrarily combined and that there must be some reason why one skilled in the art would have been motivated to make the proposed combination of primary and secondary references. However, there is no requirement that a motivation to make the modification be expressly articulated in the primary reference. The test for combining references is what the combination of disclosures taken as a whole would have suggested to one of ordinary skill in the art. References are evaluated by what they suggest to one versed in the art, rather than by their specific disclosures. In the instant case, note that the remaining claims do not claim unwinding one size of paper and winding the same onto a first reel. Thus, the combination of Yamaguchi et al in view of Gay et al and Hutzenlaub still read on claims 9, 11-13, 15 and 16.

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

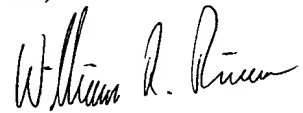

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
